

Treat the kids to an Easter getaway with cracking deals at Bunn Leisure

The Easter bunny is on its way – and there are cracking deals at Bunn Leisure, where school holiday breaks* start at just £250.

The West Sussex holiday park, located on the stunning Selsey peninsula and boasting its own mile-long beach, is the perfect destination for a getaway packed with family fun.

Bunn Leisure's Easter breaks run between March 27 and April 10, so you can grab a mid-week or weekend break to suit any schedule.

With free access to Bunn Leisure's jam-packed entertainment programme, children's activities and splashing fun at the Oasis Leisure complex, an Easter break doesn't have to break the bank.

Children and nostalgic adults can enjoy cult TV characters Zippy and George who are appearing on dates throughout the Easter holidays in their brand new theatre show Rainbow Live. There's also Bunn Leisure's own family pantomime, Dick Whittington – oh yes there is!

In the evenings, sit back and enjoy the entertainment in the 2,000-capacity Embassy venue with a host of great acts. Bootleg Blondie will be performing on Friday, April 3rd, followed by Steve Steinman's Meat Loaf Story on Saturday 4th and spectacular touring stage show A Night of Dirty Dancing on Sunday 5th.

There's plenty for the youngsters to do thanks to the three children's clubs and teenager clubs which are jam packed full of fun activities such as arts and crafts, dance workshops and fun hunts. If that's not enough, little ones can meet and celebrate their Easter Holidays with Bunn Leisure's very own 'Bunni Family', lovable cuddly costume characters in their very own stage shows and activities all designed with little ones in mind.

Football-crazy kids can get expert tips from UEFA-qualified coaches at sessions run by PASS Soccer School. And there's live wrestling and a chance to learn some moves with Revolution Pro Wrestling.

For those who venture off the site, there are plenty of Easter activities in the local area to get stuck in to. Marwell Zoo will be hosting its annual 'Eggstravaganza' wild egg hunt from April 3-6 and children can meet the Easter bunny at Parham House and Gardens on April 5 and 6.

Just down the road is the maritime city of Portsmouth with its famous 170-metre tall Spinnaker Tower. For the Easter holidays the tower offers great joint ticket deals – so enjoy the beautiful views of the city and then spend the rest of the day at Portsmouth's Historic Dockyard, visiting the Mary Rose Museum, HMS Victory, HMS Warrior and more.

Southsea's Blue Reef Aquarium also makes a great day out and offers exclusive Easter events such as hands-on workshops for the children.

Sunny Selsey is just as beautiful in April as it is at the height of summer thanks to Bunn Leisure's £17million beach and the neighbouring nature reserves, perfect for family days out and peaceful walks along the coast.

Bunn Leisure has four holiday villages to choose from – West Sands at the heart of the action,

White Horse Park for families with young children who want a quieter stay, top-of-the-range Green Lawns with more space to unwind and Warner Farm, which has 250 pitches for touring caravans, motor homes and tents with prices starting from just £40 per night for a standard pitch.

There is also a choice of luxury holiday cottages which sleep between six and 12 people – pick one with unrivalled views of the sea. Wherever you choose, the Bunni Express Land train and courtesy bus is an easy way to get around the park.

Bunn Leisure knows how to make holidays fun, which is why it's won top prizes in Tourism South East's Beautiful South Awards for Excellence for four years running and received an award for partnership excellence by industry giant Hoseasons in 2014.
