

Grammy winning soul superstar at Bunn Leisure

When the Going Gets Tough, the Tough Get Going . . . to Sussex to see legendary soul superstar Billy Ocean perform live at Bunn Leisure.

And if you heard his amazing 'unplugged' live performance on a recent Chris Evan's Breakfast Show, you'll want to make sure you catch him again when he appears at the holiday park on May 17.

The world-famous singer, who won a Grammy for the best male R&B vocal performance, will wow the audience at Bunn Leisure's 2,000-seater Embassy Club.

It's a rare opportunity to see one of the best names in the music industry – and free for guests when you book a three-night May break for just £170 for six people. Or why not pitch your tent for as little as £33 for the night!

Billy has played to millions at LiveAid and had chart-topping hits including Caribbean Queen, When the Going Gets Tough, the Tough Get Going and Get Outta My Dreams, Get Into My Car. His worldwide record sales have reached more than 30 million, he has made five Gold and Platinum selling albums and been honoured with a MOBO Lifetime Achievement Award.

The soul icon is part of Bunn Leisure's massive £1.5 million entertainment programme this season, which stars Gareth Gates in June and Shayne Ward in October.

It's the perfect excuse for a party weekend with friends or family and a stay at Bunn Leisure includes free access to its Oasis complex with megasplash waterslides and a lazy river and an amazing range of kids' clubs. The whole park is one giant playground with football, basketball and tennis courts, the Topdeck Gym and an indoor amusement arcade.

Bunn Leisure knows the secret to happy days you'll remember forever, which is why it's won top prizes in Tourism South East's Beautiful South Awards for Excellence for four years running. The family-owned 300 acre holiday park offers the Great British holiday with a massive modern twist.
