

Have you got the Dream Factor?

Join us for the grand final of Bunn Leisure's Dream Factor competition – its very own version of hit show X-Factor.

Over 200 people took part in the auditions which ran throughout the summer. Now the top 10 finalists in each age group will compete in the grand final which concludes the same weekend as X-Factor's on ITV this Saturday, November 23.

Bunn Leisure's celebrity judges have been announced as girl band Stooshe and Britain's Got Talent Finalist Razy Gogonea.

Stooshe have been nominated for a MOBO and BRIT Award and their debut album 'London with the Lights on', which features hits 'Love Me' and 'Black Heart', recently reached the Top 10.

Romanian breakdancer Razy shot to fame in 2011 when he performed his exciting and innovative Matrix inspired dance act on Britain's Got Talent.

The celebrities will be judging the hopeful contestants and Stooshe will perform to an audience of 2,000 fans this Saturday.

Adrian Douthwaite, head of entertainment said: "Once again we have some of the biggest names currently in the business coming to judge and perform at Bunn Leisure and I'd like to wish all the finalists the very best of luck in what's set to be our most exciting Dream Factor final to date."

A three-night break at Bunn Leisure on the night of the Grand Final on November 23 costs from £191 per family based on six people sharing a bronze caravan.

Ends

Issued by:

Imogen Broers, Polymedia, 01329 822866

imogenbroers@polymediapr.co.uk

For further information please visit www.bunnleisure.co.uk or contact:

Rayne Webster-Tait, Bunn Leisure, 01243 606080

To view Bunn Leisure's 2013 online brochure click here