A family of four can stay in a standard caravan at West Sands during the May off-peak period from just £156, while prices during the summer holidays (July 22nd – August 29th) start from £398.

As well as all the fun of the seaside, families can prepare for a star-studded entertainment line-up with a host of big-name acts and well-known children's characters to delight the whole family. Bunn Leisure has free kids' clubs, organised activities for children of all ages and fun packed leisure complex, The Oasis – featuring waterslides and a lazy river.

Bunn Leisure has four holiday villages to choose from – West Sands at the heart of the action, White Horse Park for families with young children who want a quieter stay, top-of-the-range Green Lawns with more space to unwind and Warner Farm, which has 250 pitches for touring caravans, motor homes and tents.

Warner Farm camping pitches start from £100 for four nights (family of four) between June 5th and July 20th.

There is also a choice of luxury holiday cottages which sleep between six and 12 people – pick one with unrivalled views of the sea. Wherever you choose, the Bunni Express Land train is an easy way to get around the park.

When it's time to explore, there's plenty to keep you busy with the South Downs National Park on your doorstep and a local area rich with perfect places to see and terrific things to do.

Portsmouth, home to Spinnaker Tower, the Historic Dockyard, Blue Reef Aquarium and Gunwharf Quays, is less than half an hour away. Goodwood is great if you fancy a flutter and Chichester is a cultural must. Cosmopolitan Brighton is just an hour away from the park.

Just down the road are the thrill rides of Paultons Park, which features Peppa Pig World for younger family members, and the wild adventure of Marwell Zoo. And you'll even save money on entrance fees for a host of attractions when you stay at the park.
