Three nights for the price of two at Warner Farm Touring Park

Happy campers can book a three-night break from just £40 at the West Sussex touring park between March 1 and April 28 this year.

As part of their stay, guests will also get free admission to some amazing entertainment – voice of M People Heather Small will be performing her greatest hits on March 12 and chart-topping legend Billy Ocean will return to the 2,000-capacity venue on April 23.

Three-night midweek breaks start from just £40 for up to four people on a standard pitch, including entertainment passes and free-of-charge entry to the onsite Oasis leisure complex.

Camping and touring spots include a toilet block with separate heated shower cubicles, electric points for hairdryers and shavers, laundrette and free onsite parking.

Neighbouring Pagham Harbour and Southdowns nature reserve are beautiful all year round, and are just a short drive away from the main site – or if you want to venture a little bit further, then Portsmouth and Chichester are great for tourist attractions.

For more information visit www.warnerfarm.co.uk and to book call 01243 604499 (9am-5pm).
