Fab-u-lous – Strictly Come Dancing favourite Robin Windsor to host a glittering evening at holiday park

Popular Latin and ballroom dancer Robin Windsor will entertain audiences with behind-the-scenes gossip from the BBC's favourite celebrity dance show when he performs at Bunn Leisure on selected dates throughout July and August.

The Strictly Come Dancing professional – who reached the semi-finals with Emmerdale star Lisa Riley in 2012 – will perform a number of his favourite routines in An Evening With Strictly's Robin Windsor, as well as treating the audience to all the info and gossip from his time on the show.

Since his SCD debut in 2010, Robin has been partnered with celebrities including Patsy Kensit, Anita Dobson, and Dragon's Den star Deborah Meaden.

He also lifted the fabulous glitter ball when he won the 2011 Children In Need Special with breakfast TV's Susanna Reid.

Robin has taken part in several Strictly Live tours and Christmas specials, and danced the fastest Charleston ever seen on the show with his partner Anna Kennedy in the first People's Strictly for Comic Relief.

To find out all the gossip just book a break at Bunn Leisure over the 22 July, 6 or 20 August – and all entertainment is free to our guests. A three-night break starts from only £195 for up to six people, or you could even pitch a tent for as little as £40 per night giving you free access to an amazing range of kids' activities and our Oasis Leisure Centre.
