

18 / 04 / 2018

Happy hounds holiday at Bunn Leisure

The West Sussex coast is the perfect place for holidaying hounds, with beautiful country parks and bracing beach walks – and at award-winning holiday park Bunn Leisure, your dog can spend an exciting week away with you for less than the price of a couple of nights at a kennel.

National Pet Month – which runs this year from now until May 7 – will see thousands of people across the UK celebrating life with their pets, and what could be better than a short break away on a stunning stretch of the south coast?

Holidaying with your pet at Bunn Leisure on the Selsey Peninsula opens up a world of doggy delights, from splashing in the waves at the park's exclusive mile-long stretch of beach to trotting around the 300-acre park on their lead.

Plenty of nearby attractions allow dogs, too. Just a short drive away from the shores of Selsey, the Amberley Museum and Heritage Centre welcomes dogs across its 36-acre site – they can even take a ride on the narrow-gauge railway to rest tired paws. When hunger sets in, head to the dog-friendly Amberley Village Tearoom for a cream tea, or tuck into a pub lunch at the George and Dragon at Houghton.

The beautiful South Downs National Park is right on the doorstep, and a great place for dogs to really stretch their legs. Dog walkers are asked to keep to the paths between March and September, to protect the park's ground nesting birds, and should be kept on a lead near livestock.

The RSPB's Medmerry nature reserve and Pagham Harbour are also just next door, and offer miles of footpaths and wide open landscapes, with panoramic views. Walks to the beach on a clear day will be rewarded with views across to the Isle of Wight and Portsmouth's Spinnaker Tower.

Holidaying with your dog at Bunn Leisure is easy: all you have to do is say you are bringing your pooch when booking to ensure that the best accommodation is provided for you – holiday cottages do not accept dogs.

Owners should also bring a vaccination certificate and their pet's favourite basket to avoid them snoozing on beds or chairs, and pay £30 per dog per week – you can bring up to two.

Dogs aren't allowed in the entertainment complexes, and should be exercised on a lead – but apart from that, a holiday at Bunn Leisure could be the ideal solution for all those who hate leaving their pets behind when they go away.

The 300-acre holiday park is split into three villages and a touring park right on the coast at Selsey.

For more information on holidaying with your pet at Bunn Leisure, visit bunisleisure.co.uk.

Ends

POLYMEDIA

Contact:

Chloe Hodgson

E: bunisleisure@polymediapr.co.uk

W: polymediapr.co.uk

T: 01329 822866

Issued on behalf of:

Bunn Leisure

www.bunisleisure.co.uk

